Deborah,
I appreciate the feedback you provided on the patent claims. I did rework claim 1 and wanted to make sure that what I put down was consistent with our phone conversation. It is on the attached draft. It sounded like either of my options (RCE or After File Amendments) will require a new search of the art and, maybe I overreacted but I had visions of a long process starting again if anything seemed even close. So, I essentially combined claim 2 with 1 to, hopefully, eliminate that possibility.

I also drafted what I think is the kind of additional information regarding Levine that you suggested. Finally, there are only a few check boxes on the RCE but I wanted to make sure that those checked boxes reflected the actual current status of the patent (last page).

Before I send it in for real, can we continue our phone conversation very briefly to make sure the attached is consistent with our phone conversation? If you email or FAX a couple of times that are good for you, I'll confirm a time and make the call.

Thanks again,
